Summary:

Mount Clemens Schools is searching to fill a vacancy for an elementary school teacher. As an elementary school teacher, you can set the tone for learning for the rest of a student's life. When students have a good, educational, happy experience during elementary school; they are more prepared to take on the challenges of middle school, high school, and college. You can teach students to love learning and also how to overcome the challenges and obstacles they face that keep them from reaching their goals. While adhering to the core curriculum required by the state, you can find creative, engaging ways to teach students real-life applications of difficult concepts like literature, math, and science.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities – Other duties may be assigned:

- Commitment to coordinate instruction within and across grade levels.
- Aptitude to discuss subject-specific content instruction and the drive to try new ideas to improve student learning.
- Capacity to align curriculum, instruction, and assessments while responding to students' needs.
- Competence to collect and analyze data to inform instructional decisions.
- Ability and desire to design and utilize formative assessment to modify and adjust instruction daily
- Ability to help create and thrive in a professional environment that is one of mutual respect, teamwork, and accountability
- Ability to seek out knowledgeable peers, coaches, or administrators for instructional support in the never-ending quest to deliver the vision of high-quality subject-specific instruction in every class period every day.
- Strong desire and ability to achieve outstanding student achievement results in a short amount of time.
- Desire and ability to build meaningful, caring relationships with students to exert academic influence.
- Skill and willingness to leverage the student support network to address students' social, emotional, nutritional, and health needs.
- Ability to motivate students and influence them.
